

Let It Snow

BOOKS TO READ

Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats (have 16 copies for reading along)

Snowballs by Lois Ehlert

Straight to the pole by Kevin O'Malley

This place in the snow by Rebecca Bond

Hello Snow by Hope Vestergarrd

The missing mitten mystery by Steven Kellogg (when making the snowman craft tell the children to give the snowman a heart just like in the book)

BIG BOOK

Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats

MUSICAL ACTIVITY

Sing as an opening song

Come sing a song of winter

Of winter, of winter

Come sing a song of winter

The cold days are here (hug yourself)

With snowing and blowing (wave arms vigorously)

And rosy cheeks glowing (point to cheeks)

Come sing a song of winter

The cold days are here (hug yourself)

Let it snow by Vaughan Monroe # 16

Play the freeze game Play going for a walk # 2 Reaching for the Stars Kathy Reid-Naiman (play music and when the music stops the children have to stop and not move - on Steve and Greg's Kids in Motion or We all live together volume 2)

FELT BOARD or APRON

Build a snowman with three felt balls (see sheet - build a snowman)
Five little snowmen

RHYMES and FINGERPLAYS

Chubby little snowman

It's snowing, it's snowing

Snow on my forehead

Here's a great big hill

Let's go walking in the snow

CIRCLE TIME

Sing This is the way we put on our snow pants....On a snowy Tuesday morning) have children tell what to put on next - scarf, jacket etc

When all dressed (say verse Let's go walking in the snow)

2.

CRAFTS

Make a snow globe with plastic cups

Make a snow man with a heart

Make a snow scene with blue paper and white paint

Make white paper folded snowflakes

OTHER

Snow day by Lynn Plourde

BOOKS

Blizzard by Carole Gerber

All you need for a snowman by Alice Schertle