Summer Book Bingo

Keep track of the books you read for July & August!

the Perth & District
UNION PUBLIC LIBRARY
a place for all

How it Works

There will be 2 prize draws throughout the summer. Monthly draws will take place on July 30th, and Aug. 28th.

Each completed line = 2 entries Full card = 10 entries

You can enter both draws! Simply submit your card with your progress, then print off a new card & log what you've already read!

Drop your bingo card through the library's book drop by any of the draw dates to be entered! Make sure to fill out your contact info!

Tag us @perthlibrary on social media & use the tags
#PDUPLSummerBingo2021
#getyoursummerreadon

features a cat	science fiction or fantasy	learn something new	something that makes you jump out of bed	published in another century the cover is red	a true story about someone's life	by an Indigenous author	based on a myth or fable	re-read an old favourite about nature	recommended by a friend	FREE	written in verse or in letters	something that makes you laugh something published in the past year	written by an author with the same initials as you	takes place in another time period	a picture book (bonus! read it aloud to someone else)	set by a river, lake, or ocean a mystery	takes place outside of North America	two books by the same author	listed on a PDUPL book list	featuring magic

Summer Book Bingo

Contact Info:
Age:
Name:

features a cat

the cover is red

about nature

something published in the past year a mystery

science fiction or fantasy a true story about someone's life recommended by a friend written by an author with the same initials as you takes place outside of North America learn something new by an Indigenous author takes place in another time period two books by the same author listed on a PDUPL book list something that makes you jump out of bed based on a myth or a fable written in verse or in letters a picture book

published in another century re-read an old favourite something that makes you laugh set by a river, lake, or ocean featuring magic

<--- Write your titles here

Reading Log